THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

A waiting period could also be a period of trial and temptation, how prepared are you for the Second coming of Christ (The Groom)?

PRAYER FOR THE WEEK

Almighty Father and King, awaken in us the consciousness to see beyond this present world, give us a heart of expectation as we wait for the glorious return of your Son Jesus Christ. Amen.

FROM THE MINISTER'S DESK.

THE WEEKLY MEDITATION.

SUNDAY 12TH — SATURDAY 18TH NOVEMBER, 2023.

THE THEME: WAITING FOR THE GROOM

THE TEXT: MATHEW 25:4

"But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps"

The ten virgins in the parable formed the welcoming party for the groom and his bride. Their duty was to watch out for the groom's approach. As they eagerly watched for his arrival by a certain time, his procession was evidently delayed. In those days they had no way to tell why there was a delay, or when they could expect the procession to arrive. All they could do was wait. They waited longer and longer but the groom had still not come! Their alertness seemed to wane as night time came, but the ten virgins still waited there for him to arrive. When they became tired with all that waiting, they fell asleep. Then suddenly at midnight, they were rudely awakened by the cry 'Behold the bridegroom comes; go out to meet him!' (Mathew 25:6) Now this was the moment they had all been anxiously waiting for. This was now the time they were supposed to perform the duty they had been assigned to perform as the welcoming party.

Five of them were adequately prepared with the evidence of their filled vessels. They welcomed the bridegroom and entered his house with him and his bride for the feast that climaxed the wedding.

Today many Christians are carrying about empty vessels, while some vessels are being filled with adulterated oil, some are careless about adding extra spiritual oil.

The long wait in this parable clearly depicts the long time that the church has waited for our Lord to come. Almost two thousand years have already passed since Christ ascended up to heaven! Many do not mind filling their vessels anymore, the Church must be mindful of what we engage ourselves with in preparation for Christ Second coming.

We cannot afford to give up waiting or resolve that Christ is not going to return at all because His second coming is closer than before.

Do have a glorious week.

Shalom, Shalom!!

The Minister.
